

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

1. Guidelines for oral presentations

- The duration of the presentation should take 7 minutes (3 minutes for questions).
- The slides must be written in English, but the oral presentation can be done in English or Spanish.
- You can use PowerPoint slides or any other alternative presentation tools (Prezi, Slides, Geniously, etc.).
- Pay attention to use colours, and a font size which can be legible and visualized in a large room (it is recommended 24-point font size for body text and 40-point font size for headings. It is also recommended to avoid using green and red colours).
- The presentation must include the same title and information concerning authors submitted in the abstract form.
- The communication should be clearly structured (eg: Introduction, Material and methods, Results and Discussion).
- Ensure that all your graphs, figures and tables include a complete and explanatory caption.
- The logo for the II Congress of Young Marine Researchers, as well as the logo of your institution must be included in your presentation (you can download the official logo for the congress here). To promote further contact between authors the e-mail address of the presenting author should be also included.
- The presentation aspect ratio will be 16:9.

2. Guidelines for posters

- The poster should be printed in size A0 (90 cm width × 120 cm height).
- The official language for posters will be English.
- Text and illustrations must be produced heavily and clearly. All posters should be readable from a distance of at least 1 meter. Recommended size is 28-point for the body text and 60-point for title. A maximum length of 600 words is also recommended.
- The poster must include the same title and information concerning authors submitted in the abstract form.
- The poster should be clearly structured (eg: Introduction, Material and methods, Results and Discussion) and follow a logical sequence from left to right and from top to bottom.
- The logo for the II Congress of Young Marine Researchers, as well as the logo of your institution must be included in your poster (you can download the official logo for the congress here). To promote further contact between authors the e-mail address and a photo of the presenting author should be also included.
